

Welcome to the Mathematics Society!

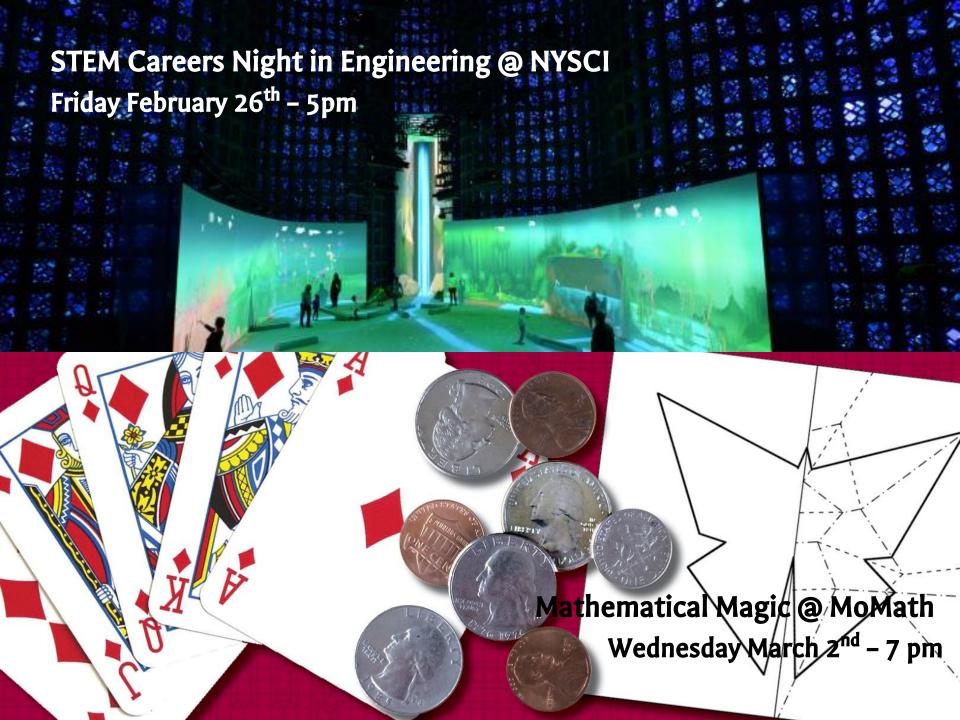

Pi Day Bake Sale

- Monday, March 14th all day
- Bake sale hosted by the Mathematics Society to raise awareness for Pi
- Volunteers and bakers are welcome

Pi Day Celebration

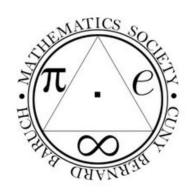

- Tuesday, March 15th during club hours
- A fun presentation on the history of pi and fun facts about π.
- Pie and delicious food on us.

Follow us!

About Us

The Mathematics Society is an undergradaute community of quantitatively-minded students at CUNY Baruch College dedicated to the exploration of mathematics and the use of mathematics in the fields where it is applicable—in today's world, everywhere. We host presentations and study groups for and on topics ranging from number theory to modern physics to financial engineering, representing as best we can the broad variety of fields in which math is useful, even required, today.

About

For more information on our events visit our Calendar.

Calendar

Board

Contact

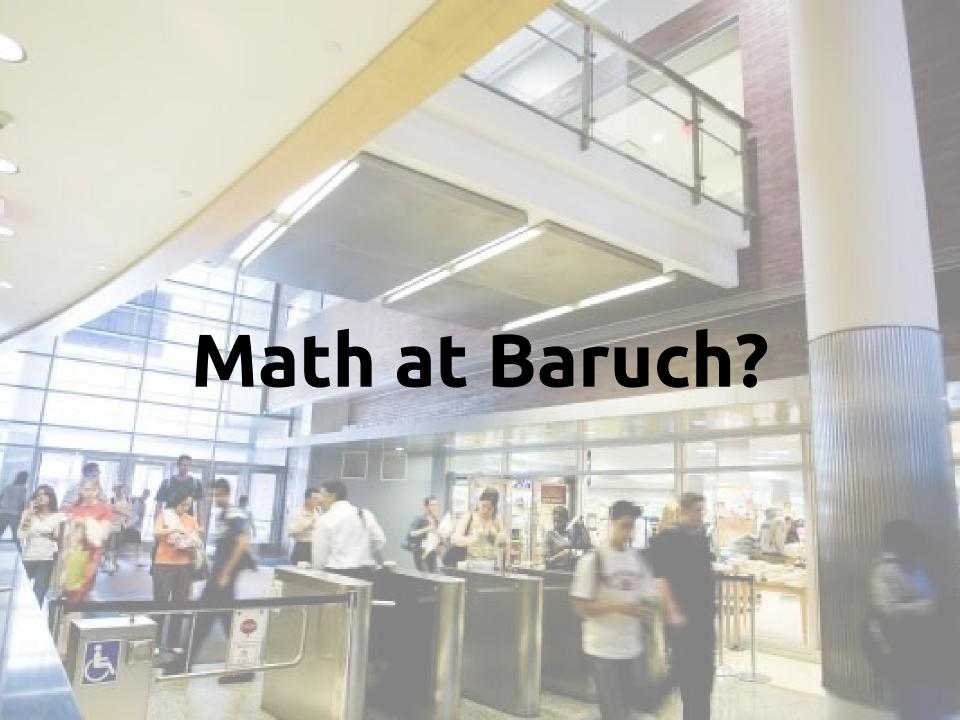

© Mathematics Society 2015-2016

http://www.baruchmathematicssociety.com

Follow us!

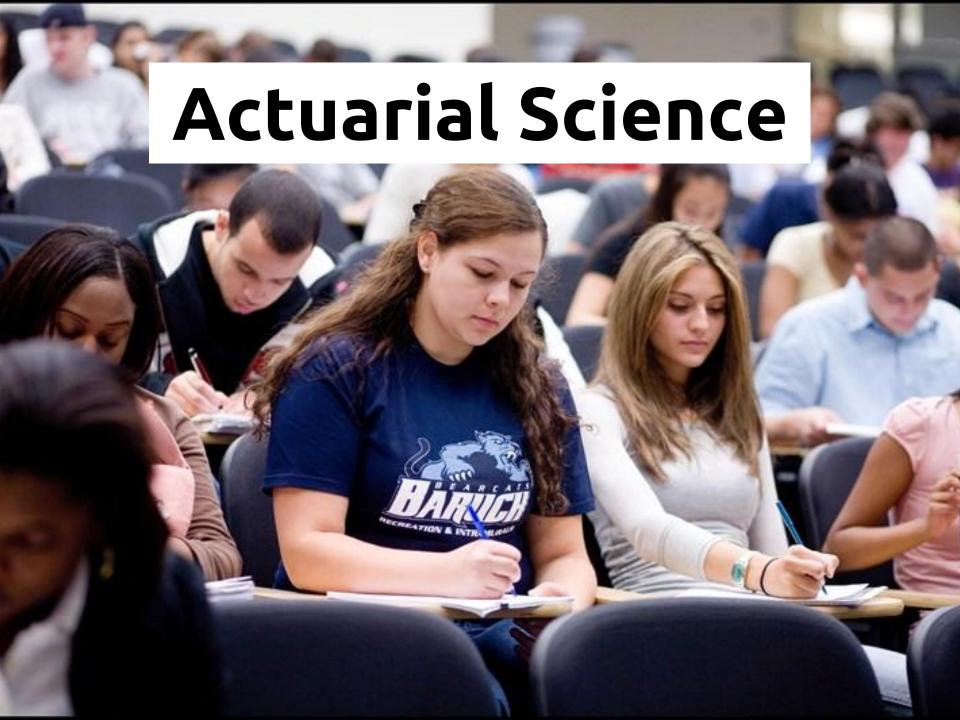

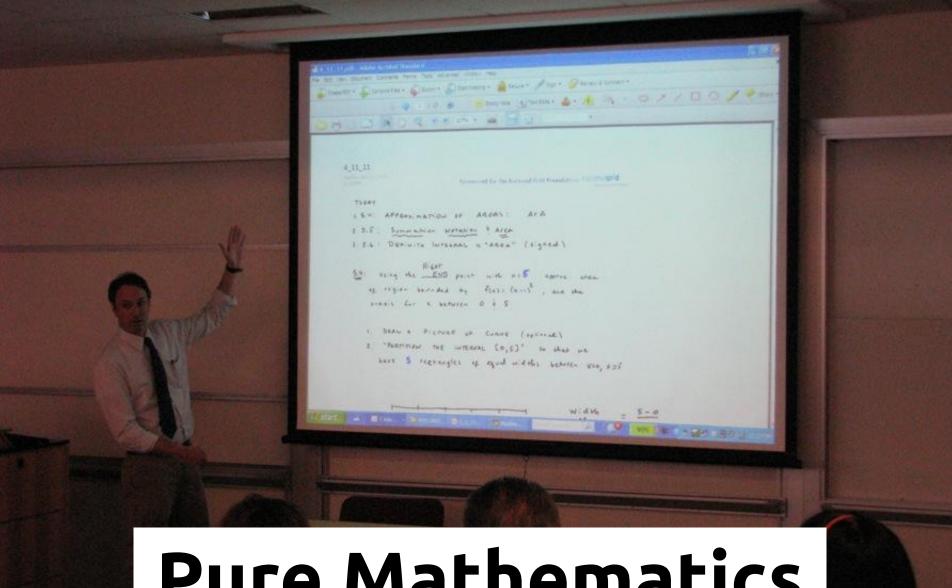

Quantitative Modeling

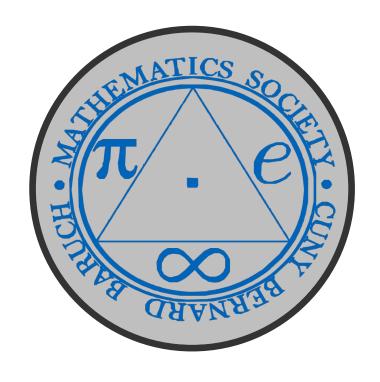

Pure Mathematics

That's all folks!